COURT-MANDATED COMMUNITY SERVICE

Meaningful service. Verified hours. Community impact.

Second Chance Volunteers offers structured volunteer opportunities for eligible individuals who need court-ordered, court-related, school, probation, or other approved community service hours.

Projects may include:

- Donation and book sorting
- Fresh Start Kit preparation
- Veterans and senior support projects
- Community cleanups and improvement projects
- Seasonal awareness and essential-care initiatives

Participants are responsible for confirming that SCV activities meet the requirements of their court, attorney, probation officer, school, or referring agency.

Volunteers may choose whether SCV can use their image and first name. Choosing “No” does not affect participation. Court or other personal status is not disclosed without separate permission.

SECOND CHANCE VOLUNTEERS

Creating opportunities to serve & move forward.

COMMUNITY SERVICE | COMMUNITY CARE PROJECTS | COMMUNITY SUPPORT

Second Chance Volunteers connects people with meaningful ways to give back through court-mandated service, community volunteering, and practical projects that support local families and neighbors.

EVERY HOUR CAN MAKE A DIFFERENCE

Official programs of Second Chance Volunteers

COMMUNITY CARE PROJECTS

Fresh Start Kits

Volunteers assemble practical essential-care kits for individuals and families experiencing transition, hardship, or other community needs.

Awareness Care Projects

Seasonal projects may combine essential-care items with community awareness initiatives, including support connected to Domestic Violence Awareness Month and Breast Cancer Awareness Month.

Second Chance Closet & Clothing Drives

SCV organizes clothing collection and sorting efforts to help connect usable items with community needs and partner organizations.

Senior Support

Senior Care Bags and other outreach projects provide thoughtful essentials and comfort items for older adults in the community.

SERVICE & COMMUNITY

Book & Literacy Projects

A Second Chance Volunteers Initiative

SCV collects and prepares children's books for community partners and family-support initiatives. Volunteers help collect, sort, and prepare age-appropriate books for meaningful community use.

Veterans Support

Projects such as Warm Hearts for Heroes provide care bags, seasonal essentials, and community recognition for local veterans.

Environmental & Community Projects

SCV volunteers participate in cleanups, beautification efforts, garden and community-improvement projects, and other hands-on service opportunities.

Community Partnerships

SCV works with local organizations, businesses, farms, schools, and community partners to create meaningful volunteer projects and strengthen local support networks.

COMMUNITY RESOURCES

Local connections. Practical support.

RESOURCE INFORMATION

Community resources for Greenwich, Stamford, Norwalk, Bridgeport & surrounding Fairfield County communities.

SCV maintains an online resource directory to help community members connect with organizations that provide practical support and essential services.

Resource Packet Available

A more detailed community resource packet is available upon request.

The packet may include local resources related to:

- Food assistance and basic needs
- Housing, employment, and community support

Resources may also include

Mental health and recovery services, domestic violence and family support, veterans services, and other community-based assistance.

Please Note

Resource information is provided for convenience. SCV does not guarantee eligibility, availability, or services offered by outside organizations. Please contact each organization directly for current information.
